REPORT: Mayor Hernandez stated that Tallahassee rushed into passing a law that removed internet cafes and made these amusement machines illegal. He further stated that once the law passed, said were removed in Hialeah within forty-eight hours. Mayor Hernandez stated that there were changes in the interpretation of the law, and after consulting with the State Attorney's Office, the City was told that mere possession of a machine is not illegal, and that a payout and gambling is illegal. Mayor Hernandez advised that this proposed ordinance is a way of regulating the machines, and encouraged the Council to provide suggestions that may be incorporated into the proposed ordinance.

REPORT: Council Hernandez stated that erroneous information has been disseminated on this matter and as a result he has received many questions on the public for clarification.

REPORT: Councilman Gonzalez stated he is in favor of regulating and allowing it to exist based on a set of rules instead of banning it completely.

REPORT: Council President Garcia-Martinez stated that in Tallahassee when this law was being passed, it was unclear, and as a result many people in other cities have chosen to ignore the problem.

REPORT: Mayor Hernandez thanked the State Attorney, Katherine Fernandez-Rundle for working with the City on this issue.

REPORT: City Attorney Grodnick explained the changes in the law.
